Supervision of Building Works Galway

Supervision of Building Works

Clients often require building works to be inspected at various stages of construction in order for payments to be released by the lending institution to fund the project. In this regard we can...

1. Carry out interim inspections at agreed stages of construction.
2. Issue interim certificates for payment to the bank/lending institution.
3. Issue certificates of compliance with Building Regulations and/or Planning permission upon completion.